

My Interest List

To identify who Jesus may be calling you to reach, ask yourself which relatives, friends, co-workers, church visitors, classmates, neighbours, or community acquaintances, who are not Seventh-day Adventists, come to mind as you read the following questions:

- Who have I wanted to get to know better and share God's love with?
- Who do I know is experiencing a significant change in their life? (could be a time of spiritual receptivity)
- Who is reaching out to me, indicating they trust me?
- With whom have I recently had a spiritual conversation?
- Who seems open and receptive to spiritual things?
- Who is asking questions about God or the Bible?
- Who have I been actively witnessing to or giving Bible studies to?
- Who has shown interest in my church?
- Who has been coming to my church that is not a member?
- For whom do I have a special burden? Write down the names of those that came to your mind and then take a moment to pray over your list to see which ones God wants you to especially focus on.
